5/12 Chairman's Report

The chairman reported the following:

- A lot of interest was shown in the Travellers Consultation. The Parish council responded on behalf of the village but, as yet, no feedback has been received. A residents association has been formed as a result of the consultation.
- The PC is considering sponsoring the development of a Neighbourhood plan but work cannot start until the District Council have completed their overall plan.
- The next year may be difficult due to financial restraints. Parishes will be expected to take on more responsibility in future.
- It is to be hoped that the level of interest in PC matters continues throughout the year.

6/12 Any Other Business

None

- There being no further business the meeting closed at 20:10
